

Irish Haemophilia Society

EDUCATIONAL GRANT

In memory of Margaret King

APPLICATION FORM FOR YEAR 2022

The Margaret King Educational Grant is an educational grant the Society introduced in 2004. This grant is made available to an immediate family member of a person with haemophilia or related bleeding disorder, be it a spouse, son, daughter, sister, brother, mother or father. Carriers with factor levels greater than 40% can also apply for this grant. The person applying must be accepted on a post second level educational course at levels 7 to 9. The person with the bleeding disorder must be registered at the National Coagulation Centre St. James's Hospital in Dublin.

Grants: First place €2,000, second place €1,000 and third place €500.

Candidate must provide the I.H.S. with a receipt of payment for their college course at the time of application. Candidates can only apply for one I.H.S. grant each year.
