

Irish Haemophilia Society

EDUCATIONAL GRANT

In memory of Father Paddy McGrath

APPLICATION FORM FOR YEAR 2018

Father Paddy McGrath was a dear friend to the Society for many years. To perpetuate his memory, the Society introduced this grant. This grant is made available to a person with haemophilia or related bleeding disorder, including a person with carrier status (carriers with factor levels greater than 40% can apply for this grant) who has been accepted onto a post second level educational course at level 5 or level 6. This grant is also made available to immediate family members be it a spouse, son, daughter, sister, brother, mother or father who has been accepted onto a post second level educational course at level 5 or level 6. The person with the bleeding disorder must be registered at the National Coagulation Centre at St. James's Hospital in Dublin. First prize is €1,000, second prize is €500 and third prize is €250. Each candidate must provide the I.H.S. with a receipt of payment for their college course at the time of application.
